Adelaide CBD's newest retailer celebrates store opening with charitable donations

Officeworks is helping businesses and professionals in Adelaide make bigger things happen by opening the doors to a new store in the heart of the CBD on Monday 3rd April – a development which will create 27 jobs for the area.

To mark the opening and demonstrate Officeworks' commitment to local initiatives, the Adelaide CBD team will be donating $2,000 to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island student support organisation, Wirtu Yarluy, as well as $2,000 to homeless community organisation, Hutt Street Centre.

The charitable presentation will take place on Tuesday 11th April with Officeworks Managing Director, Mark Ward and newly appointed Store Business Manager, Tanya Close, presenting the cheques alongside the Lord Mayor of the City of Adelaide, Martin Haese, at the ceremony.

Tanya said: "It has been great to see the positive reaction from locals since announcing we were opening in the city. The team is working hard to get the store ready for customers and can't wait to help them with their projects, big and small.

"We're looking forward to introducing locals to the wide range of products, great service and everyday low prices that have been helping Australians make bigger things happen for more than 20 years," she said.

The Adelaide CBD store is the retailer's 164th opening in Australia and will offer residents and businesses a comprehensive range of office supplies, technology and furniture products, along with an extensive range of Print & Copy services and Mailman parcel delivery service.

The store will be open from 7am-9pm Monday to Friday, from 8am-5pm on Saturday and 11am-5pm on Sunday, allowing locals to enjoy longer trading hours.
