

SIMPLE SENTENCES

DECLARATIVE

Makes a statement and ends with a full-stop.

That dog with the black dots is called a Dalmatian.

IMPERATIVE

Gives a command and ends with a full-stop.

Feed my cat.

EXCLAMATORY

Shouts of something and ends with an exclamation point.

Wow, that was a great day at the water park!

INTERROGATIVE

Asks something and ends with a question mark.

Will you be joining us for dinner?

DIALOGUE

Written conversation shown within quotation marks.

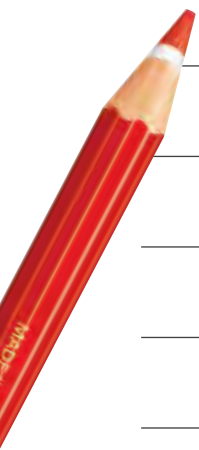

"I am so excited about going to school today", said Sally

SIMPLE SENTENCES

Write a short story about your favourite topic (for example dogs, friends, or school) and use your colouring pencils to colour-code the different types of sentences that you use in your story.

Tip: Use the key below to remember the different kinds of sentences and their corresponding colours.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

KEY:

-  DECLARATIVE
-  IMPERATIVE
-  INTERROGATIVE
-  EXCLAMATORY
-  DIALOGUE

